

Henry Allen & Son FURNISHING
UNDERTAKERS
88 Main St.
Lady Assistant when requested

Rock Glen Cream
Rich and Heavy

J. M. YOUNG & SON
Corner Main and Market Street
Telephone 1233

Diamonds
Diamonds
Diamonds
John & Geo. H. Bliss
126 Main Street

On or about the tenth of January we will have something to say to you about a
"Business Men's Lunch" which we have had under contemplation for sometime past.

THE WAUREGAN HOUSE
The Parker-Davenport Co.
Proprietors.

NEW YEAR GIFTS!
SLEDs, GAMES,
BOOKS, TRAINS,
TOYS, DOLLS,
CARRIAGES,
BASKETS,
POST CARDS, BOOKLETS
MRS. EDWIN FAY
Franklin Square

WALL PAPERS
A full line of the above with new additions coming along, including those with cut out borders.
Moldings and bands to match. Mixed papers, murex and tints; also art size imitations.
We are in the market for painting, paper-hanging and decorating all the time.

P. F. MURTAGH
82 and 94 West Main Street.

Overhauling and Repair Work
—OF ALL KINDS ON—
AUTOMOBILES, CARRIAGES, WAG-ONS, TRUCKS and CARTS.
Mechanical repairs, painting, trimming, upholstering and wood work slacksmithing in all its branches.

Scott & Clark Corp.
507 to 515 North Main St.

Babies!
Soon they will be big boys and girls, and their faces will be only a memory.
Bring the babies and we'll catch their smiles.

LAUGHTON
THE PHOTOGRAPHER
Opposite Norwich Savings Society.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Friday, Jan. 9, 1914.

THE WEATHER.

Today's Weather Forecast.

For Southern New England: Local rains Friday; Saturday rain or snow; colder by night; moderate southwest to south winds.
Predictions from the New York Herald: On Friday it will be mostly clear and cold, preceded by rain or snow, with brisk westerly to northwesterly winds, followed by clear conditions.
The outlook for Saturday is generally fair and colder.

Observations in Norwich.
The following reports, reported from Sevin's pharmacy, show the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Thursday:

	Ther. Bar.
7 a. m.	36 28.78
12 m.	40 29.76
6 p. m.	38 29.74
Highest 40, lowest 36.

Comparisons.
Predictions for Thursday: Generally cloudy and unsettled.
Thursday's weather: As predicted, with snow squalls.

Sun, Moon and Tides.
Day.	Time.
8	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
9	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
10	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
11	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
12	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
13	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
14	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
15	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
16	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
17	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
18	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
19	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
20	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
21	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
22	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
23	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
24	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
25	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
26	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
27	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
28	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
29	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
30	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.
31	7:15 a. m. 4:32 p. m.

GREENEVILLE

Meeting of Ladies' Aid Society With Mrs. William Kramer, Sr.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Greenville Congregational church held their first meeting of the new year on Wednesday evening with Mrs. William Kramer, Sr. of Centreville. There was a good attendance and interest.
The meeting was opened with the Lord's prayer by the president, Mrs.
Samuel Lathrop, after which the reports of the secretary and treasurer were heard and accepted. The treasurer's report showed a substantial sum in the treasury. During the month several bouquets were sent to sick and shut-ins.

The society voted to buy aprons this winter and sold at the recent fair conducted jointly by the Ladies' Aid society and Episcopalian circle of The Kings Daughters the ladies cleared $170, which has been set aside as a fund for the purchase of a new carpet for the church.

After the business of the meeting had been concluded the hostess served delicious chocolate and cake and a social hour followed.

Ladies' Guild Meeting.

Thursday afternoon the Ladies' Guild met with Mrs. Ann Campbell of Prospect street, with a large attendance.
Among other matters the ladies discussed the matter of having a Washington social. Further plans will be made later. Next Thursday the guild will meet with Mrs. John McKinley of Thirteenth street.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. Charles Erwin and son, William, are visiting Mrs. Erwin's mother, Mrs. Thomas Balfour of Bristol, R. I.

TAFTVILLE

Sudden Death of William H. Young—Stricken in Store With Heart Disease.

The many friends of William H.
Young were shocked to hear of his death, which occurred suddenly Thursday afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock in the People's Store. Mr. Young had just returned from dinner when stricken and died. He was a well known and prominent citizen of Taftville and he pronounced death due to heart trouble. Medical Examiner Dr. Rush Buckley was informed of the death and came to the store to examine the body. He was accompanied by Dr. H.
Young, who is treasurer of the Deane-ville, Clarke & Young corporation, conducting the People's Store on Front street, and a daughter, Miss Gertrude Young, both of Taftville. Mr. Young was a Mason of prominence in the Boston Royal Arch chapter and was 69 years of age.

GOING TO ALBERTA.

Jack Guedo, for some time past has conducted the lunch room at Taft's Station, has sold the business to Daniel Buckley, who took possession on Thursday. Mr. Guedo is leaving for Alberta in a short time.

PERSONALS.

John Peroni is suffering from an attack of the grip.
Roderick Bernard has given up his position here and has gone to work Edmond Proulx, who conducts the Williamite wet wash.

ENTERTAINED FOR WORCESTER RELATIVES.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs.
Joseph C. Keegan entertained a number of their friends at their home, 74 Pearl street, in honor of the party.
Mr. and Mrs. Eudine Digneault, of Worcester, Mass. Music was enjoyed, songs were rendered and refreshments were served.

VAUDEVILLE AND MOTION PICTURES.

At the Auditorium during the last half of the week a pleasing program of vaudeville and motion pictures is offered. On Wednesday and Thursday the feature of the motion picture program was the new real-film The Night Shadows of New York.
Gilmore & Castle have a pleasing blackface act which includes good singing and dancing and snappy humor. Balaban has a novel cycling act introducing a variety of new stunts.
He gets a big hand for his clever work. Cleary & Tracey please with their songs and comedy.

Signed Terminal Lease.

Officials of the Central Vermont Railway Co. were in New London Thursday, arriving on a special train at 12:15
p. m. The afternoon party was given by President E. C. Smith, Vice President G. C. Jones, E. P. Chamberlain, chairman of the board of directors and E. A.
Chittenden, a director.

President Smith and Vice President

Jones were present at the annual meeting of the New London Northern railroad held in the afternoon, at which the agreement was made for the land in East New London, to be used by the state for the terminal pier, was signed.
The contracting parties were President Smith for the central Vermont and President Osgood for the New London Northern.

Owing to cases of smallpox in Hartford notices were given students of St.

Polina's academy that they were expected to spend the holidays at their respective homes, that they were expected to produce certificates showing that they had been vaccinated within five years.

Children Cry

FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

BIG BUSINESS IN POST OFFICE

Postal Account $6,850 More Than Last Year—Largely Due to Thermos Use of Parcel Post—$154,176 More in Money Order Transactions Than a Year Ago.

There was a large increase in the business of the Norwich post office in the past year, according to the report just compiled by Postmaster William Caruthers on the year's transactions.
In the postal account the gain was $6,850, and in the money order account it was $154,176.

The increase in the postal account, the post office authorities say, is largely due to the business done by the American Thermos Bottle company in parcel post packages mailed by them.
The following is the official report of the Norwich, Conn., post office of financial transactions for the year ending December 31, 1913:

Postal Account.

Receipts from sale of stamps, envelopes, box rents, newspapers and periodical postage and miscellaneous items $75,529.47
Gain $15,559.16

Money Order Department.

Domestic money orders
issued $218,189.88
International money orders
issued $1,556.92
Total money orders issued $219,746.80

International Money Orders.

Domestic money orders
issued $218,189.88
International money orders
issued $1,556.92
Total money orders issued $219,746.80

Postal Savings Department.

Individual Depositors' Accounts.
Bal. Dec. 31, 1912 $3,968.00 Deposits Jan. 1 to Dec. 31, 1913 $154,176.00

MISS GREGORY SPOKE TO

EQUAL FRANCHISE LEAGUE

Statewide Plan to Have Every Voter Declare His Attitude on Suffrage.

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Norwich Equal Franchise League held on Thursday afternoon at the Buckingham Memorial Hall. The meeting was opened by Miss Gregory, who was the chief speaker. She gave a detailed account of the plan for the statewide suffrage campaign, which is being conducted in Connecticut. She stated that the plan is to have every voter declare his attitude on suffrage by filling out a card and placing it in a box. The cards will be counted and the results will be made known to the public.
Miss Gregory stated that the plan is being conducted in many other states and is being very successful. She stated that the plan is being conducted in many other states and is being very successful. She stated that the plan is being conducted in many other states and is being very successful.

ASKS $1,000 FOR

BREACH OF PROMISE

In Suit in Superior Court by Miss A.
Melsch of New York.

Philip Kodak of New London was arrested on a body writ Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Manuel J. Martin on a charge of breach of promise suit, brought by Miss Annie Melsch of New York. Miss Melsch sues for $1,000, the papers returned at the next term of the civil superior court.

KODAK CAME TO NEW LONDON

from New York and has been employed as a tailor. He was located there by Miss Melsch who arrived in the city about a week ago, causing his arrest Wednesday.

IN DEFAULT OF BONDS KODAK WAS committed to the New London county jail.

Kodak is about 21 years of age.

MISSIONS IN CHINA.

Made Subject for Trinity Methodist Missionary Society Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society was held Thursday afternoon in the parlors of Trinity Methodist church.
The meeting was held with a large attendance. The usual business was transacted and the discussion of China was the feature of the evening. Interesting papers by Mrs. James McKee, Mrs.
Costello Lippitt and Mrs. Frank H.
Thorne were read. The next term of New Day were also read. Two enjoyable piano selections were rendered by Mrs. W. S. Newbury and Miss Edith beth Lane. Pleased with violin solos, accompanied by Mr. Newbury.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

At the Auditorium during the last
half of the week a pleasing program of vaudeville and motion pictures is offered. On Wednesday and Thursday the feature of the motion picture program was the new real-
film The Night Shadows of New York.
Gilmore & Castle have a pleasing
blackface act which includes good
singing and dancing and snappy hu-
mor. Balaban has a novel cycling act
introducing a variety of new stunts.
He gets a big hand for his clever
work. Cleary & Tracey please with
their songs and comedy.

Signed Terminal Lease.

Officials of the Central Vermont Railway Co. were in New London Thursday, arriving on a special train at 12:15
p. m. The afternoon party was given by President E. C. Smith, Vice President
G. C. Jones, E. P. Chamberlain, chair-
man of the board of directors and E. A.
Chittenden, a director.

President Smith and Vice President

Jones were present at the annual meeting of the New London Northern
railroad held in the afternoon, at which
the agreement was made for the land in East New London, to be used by the
state for the terminal pier, was signed.
The contracting parties were President Smith for the central Vermont
and President Osgood for the New London Northern.

Owing to cases of smallpox in Hartford notices were given students of St.

Polina's academy that they were
expected to spend the holidays at their respective homes, that they were expected to produce certificates showing that they
had been vaccinated within five years.

Children Cry

FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

CHURCH AID SOCIETY

HELD ANNUAL MEETING.

First Baptist Church Society Reported Busy and Successful Year.

The annual meeting of the Church Aid society of the First Baptist church was held at the church Wednesday evening. The meeting was a good attendance. The meeting, which was called to order at 8 o'clock by the president, Mrs. Minnie Amburn, was one full of interest.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, followed by the annual reports. Mrs. John B. Oat, the secretary, gave an excellent report of the work accomplished. The year has been an unusually busy one with the society, with a bright outlook for 1914.

The financials of the society, as told by the treasurer, Mrs. Arthur F. Howard, was most encouraging. Mrs.
Howard reported the year 1913, with one exception, to be the brightest and most prosperous year of the society for more than 25 years. Although many more demands had been made upon the society's treasury, all obligations had been met, with a good balance at the bank.

Following the reports, the election of officers resulted as follows, practically a re-election. President, Mrs.
Minnie Amburn; vice president, Mrs.
Lemuel Park; secretary, Mrs. John B.
Oat; treasurer, Mrs. Arthur F. Howard; collector, Mrs. Alfred Davis; assistant collector, Mrs. Thomas B. Linton; marriage director, Mrs. William Will J. Koonz, assisted by Mrs. William Breed, Mrs. Charles Cross and Mrs.
Howard. The year 1913 was a most interesting one for the society. The New London post office for December, 1913, was $4,948.39. For the month of January, 1914, the gain was $2,431.41. The year 1913 was a most interesting one for the society. The
New London post office for December, 1913, was $4,948.39. For the month of January, 1914, the gain was $2,431.41.

Church Meeting Postponed.

Thursday evening the date for the annual meeting of the Second Congregational church, but because of the delicious snow, the meeting was adjourning. The usual midweek service for prayer, prayer and conference was held.

NORWICH TOWN

Evangelist Adams Deplores Lack of Revival and Zeal—Special Meetings at First Congregational Church.

Much interest is shown in the revival meetings held at the First Methodist church. Prayer and testimony Wednesday evening were followed by a special meeting. F. B.
Adams of Manchester, who said in the course of his address:

"I come with a message in my heart to the church of this town. I feel that the church of former days had been as it is today I might not have been led to Christ for the people of this town. I feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have been led to Christ for the people of this town. I feel that the church of former days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the people of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the church of former days had been as it is today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might
not have been led to Christ for the peo-
ple of this town. I feel that the church
of former days had been as it is today
I might not have been led to Christ for
the people of this town. I feel that the
church of former days had been as it is
today I might not have been led to
Christ for the people of this town. I
feel that the church of former days had
been as it is today I might not have
been led to Christ for the people of this
town. I feel that the church of former
days had been as it is today I might not have been led to Christ for